

KDHE Sponsors Cultural Competency Training

This year the KDHE Office of Communications and KDHE Office of Local and Rural Health will sponsor six cultural competency-training classes. These sessions will provide KDHE employees, including district staff, and key KDHE partner staff, the ability to gain knowledge about individuals and groups of people with diverse racial, ethnic and cultural backgrounds.

All training sessions are the same, and will run from 9 a.m. – 4 p.m. in Room 530 of the Curtis State Office Building. Two of the six dates will be televised to the district offices and Division of Laboratories, and are designated below.

Class size is limited to approximately 40-50 participants. Registration is determined by Division and Bureau Directors. Registration is due to Amy Bowman, Office of the Secretary, at 296-1538, or ABowman@kdhe.state.ks.us by March 15.

KDHE will retain some training slots for partner agencies such as local health department staff.
